

Green Island Recreation Department

Rules and Regulations for Green Island Parks

- GREEN ISLAND RESIDENTS ONLY.
- No bicycle riding in the park areas; bikes are to be parked in designated areas.
- Absolutely NO GLASS CONTAINERS allowed in the parks (by local law).
- No pets allowed in the parks (by local law).
- No tree climbing.
- No standing on swings, slides, or benches.
- No running around wading pool area or climbing on center spray.
- NO BARE FEET-proper footwear must be worn at all times.
- No throwing stones or sand.
- No jumping off swings; only one person per swing at one time.
- No climbing on swing bars.

LITTERING is a major concern of ours in the parks. Please use the trash cans provided and help keep our parks clean.

VANDALISM and GRAFFITI are both crimes, and will be punishable to the fullest extent of the law. We have put a lot of effort into improving our parks, and we hope that residents can enjoy the facilities for their intent.

Parents are asked to please review these rules and regulations with their children so that they are fully understood.

Violations of any of these rules and regulations could result in loss of park privileges.

(Please detach and return to the Paine Street Park or Village Office)
